

Example of RAN (Reading and Analyzing Non-Fiction) Classroom Chart

Before the lesson, prepare a large format chart on which students can stick post-it notes. We will be creating a whole-class RAN chart titled “Native American in New England Today” based on a guided look at websites of two New England Native American tribes, Mashpee Wampanoag and Mohegan, some social media sites, and the book Strawberry Thanksgiving by Paulla Dove Jennings.

Prior Knowledge (What We Think We Know)	Confirmed (Yes, we found evidence that it's true)	Misconceptions (No, could not find evidence. It's not true.)	New Learning (What we learned)	Wonderings (Questions we still have)
